The SR-689A is a ATX chassis which focuses on cooling performance and maximum configurability. This chassis maintains Solleron's pedigree of compact-sized and quality build that would look great in any spaces. The dual chamber design divides hot running components from the cooler ones and allows for excellent airflow over the motherboard, processor and graphics card. The case comes with four excellent 120mm fans on the front and also can be upgraded with several additional fans if needed. Featuring several options for placing water cooling radiators, tall heat sinks and hard drives. The flexibility of this case really gives the users the possibility to create their great system build.
